

Science Morning

On the Friday of Science Week 2020 we invited parents and carers into school to share what we had been learning in class. The children had the opportunity to present their new science learning to an audience, explore their science books with a parent even carry out some classroom investigations..

