

Science Week

In March we held our annual British Science Week 2021.

Year 1 began naming materials. They matched materials to their name. they then handled a rang of materials, beginning to describe their properties.

Year 2 also explored the properties of everyday materials and groups them based on their properties.

