

To promote a love of reading at home, Key Stage One went on a trip to their local library in Southwater Telford.

We met the librarian who talked to us all about the library and read us a story.

We explored the children's section and all the books they had on offer.

We had the chance to get our own library card and check a book out for the first time.

