

PSQM Celebration

Following the school achieving the Primary Science Quality Mark GILT award we held a whole school science celebration.

We invited our school science link governor to speak to the children and present the award to the school.

The children then took part in a range of science based activities to celebrate our achievement.

